MORNING LEADER

E. COWLES, BERNOTE.

SATURDAY MORNING, OCT. 12, 1861. All Reading Matter on this page is from our Yesterday Afternoon's Edition.

By the Mansfield Herald, we have the official returns of Richland county. The vote is about two thirds the last Presidential vote. Mansfield gave Tod a majority of 26. The county gave Jewett a majority of 261. Kenney, Democrat, was elected to the Senate. The Union Treasurer, Sheriff, and Clerk were elected.

From Carroll county our ocrrespondent,

" W. B.," writes us: "We give the State Union tioke" at least 2,000 majority, and the district and county ticket from 700 to 1,200 majority. Our ans, and all silent! Silent as a city of the mette was "Union first, party afterwards," dead! But there was no torpor there. and the straight-out party tickets could bing brain, there were the burning check not stem the current against it."

The other day, when I stood in the pres-ence of Two Tuousand Tennessecons, ex iled like myself from their homes of cor ort and the families of their love, I found that my manhood and sterrings of mind were all nothing, and that I was only ohld. There they were, my friends and fellow-citizens of my heloved State, gathored upon the friendly soil of Kentucky, from the tender stripling of sixteen to the gray-haired fathers of sixty, all mourning the evil that has befallen our land and ou omes, but all seeking for arms wherewith go back and drive the invader from our fields and hearthstones. (Applause.) essayed to speak to them words of counse and encouragement, but speech was dealed me. I stood before them as one who i dumb. If it be true that out of the full ness of the heart the mouth speaketh, it is also true that the heart may be too full for the utterance of speech. And such were ours-two thousand of us exiled Tennessec-
